1 Make filling

Heat a large pan over a high heat with a drizzle of oil. Once hot, fry the beef mince for 5 min or until browned. Add the taco seasoning (spicy!), brown sugar and tomato paste and cook for 2 min. Transfer the mix to a bowl, wipe and reserve the pan.

Tip! If cooking for kids, reserve a portion of the beef mince before adding the taco seasoning.

2 Make salsa

Meanwhile, roughly chop the tomatoes and cucumber into chunks. Finely chop the coriander (stalks included). In a bowl, combine the tomatoes, coriander and the cucumber with a squeeze of lime juice and a pinch of salt. Set aside.

Tip! If cooking for kids, reserve a portion of the chopped tomatoes and cucumbers before adding the coriander and lime juice.

3 Assemble quesadillas

Place half of the tortilla wraps on a board. Divide the warm beef filling between the wraps and spread it out in an even layer. Sprinkle with the cheese, top with the remaining tortilla wraps and press down firmly - these are your quesadillas.

Tip! If cooking for kids, reserve a portion of the tortillas and cheese for step 5.

4 Fry quesadillas

Return the reserved pan to a medium heat with a drizzle of oil. Once hot, place one quesadilla at a time into the pan and cook for 2 min while pressing down with a spatula. Flip and cook for 2 min further. Repeat this process with the remaining quesadillas.

Tip! Too scared to flip the quesadillas with a spatula? Cover the pan with a large plate, grip the plate firmly, flip the pan 180' and slide the quesadillas back into the pan.

5 Serve

Slice the quesadillas into triangles and serve with the tomato salsa and sour cream on the side.

Tip! If cooking for kids, let them build their own quesadillas by serving the reserved beef mince, plain tomatoes and cucumber, cheese, sour cream, tortillas and lime separately.
