1 Prep

Wash and chop the potatoes into small, bite sized pieces. Peel and chop the onions, carrots and garlic. In a bowl, combine the corn starch with (2/3/4) tbsp of water. Set aside.

2 Start curry

Heat a large pan over a high heat with a drizzle of oil. Add the onions and carrots and fry for 5 min with a pinch of salt and pepper. Add the garlic, curry powder and paprika powder to the same pan and fry for 1 min further. Add the beef stock, measured water, dark soy, [0.5/0.5/1] chicken stock cube (reserve the remaining for step 4) and the potatoes. Reduce the heat to low, cover, and cook for 20 min. Stir occasionally.

3 Fry steak strips

Meanwhile, heat a second large pan over a high heat with a drizzle of oil. Once hot, add the steak strips with a pinch of salt and fry for 5 min until browned. Transfer the steak strips to a plate.

4 Geelrys

Meanwhile, rinse the basmati rice. Add the rice, turmeric, cinnamon stick, raisins a pinch of salt, the measured water and the remaining chicken stock cube to a pot with a lid and bring to a boil over a high heat. Once boiling, reduce the heat to low, cover, and cook for 10-12 min.

5 Finish

Once the potatoes are tender, add the corn starch mix to the curry and cook for 3 min further or until thickened. Add the beef strips and cook for 1 min. Add the mango chutney and a pinch of chilli powder (spicy!) to the curry. Once the rice is cooked, remove the cinnamon stick and stir in the butter.

Tip! For a less sweet version, add only one tablespoon of the mango chutney to the curry.

6 Serve

Slice the red chilli and pick the coriander leaves. Serve the South African Beef curry over the Geelrys. Garnish with the chilli (spicy!) and the fresh coriander.
